COLLINSVILLE STATE HIGH SCHOOL History Plan 2022

| 1

UNIT 1 – Investigating the ancient past	UNIT 2 – The Asian world - China
An introductory focus to the unit and the theory that people moved out of Africa around 60 000 BC (BCE) and migrated to other parts of the world. It provides students with a foundation for their study of the ancient world, focusing on the nature of sources and how the past is investigated.	Students explore China, a significant imperial power that wielded social and cultural influence on its neighbours. A study of China the rich and long history of this important regional and world pow
 Inquiry question: How do we know about the ancient past? In this unit, students: identify the tools, techniques and methods used by historians and archaeologists to investigate history explore the range of sources that can be used in an historical investigation and the usefulness of these sources investigate a historical mystery from ancient Australia that has challenged historians or archaeologists appreciate the importance of and controversies surrounding conserving the remains of the past 	 Inquiry questions: Why and where did the earliest societies develop? What emerged as the defining characteristics of anciet What have been legacies of ancient societies? In this unit, students: explore the physical features of China and how they i there investigate significant beliefs, values and practices of identify and understand the roles of key groups in and investigate the role of a significant individual and how contemporaries and later historians examine the extent of contacts and conflicts within an resulting developments.
Unit 1 Assessment	Unit 2 Assessment
Assignment	Supervised Examination
Research Investigation	Short Response Exam
Students choose an ancient traditional Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander artefact and conduct an investigation of the artefact to draw conclusions about the society from which it came. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to:	Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the view about him by people at the time; and to explain different into origin and purpose of sources. Students respond to questions b or paragraphs.
 develop questions to frame a historical inquiry identify and select a range of sources and locate, compare and use information to answer inquiry questions analyse and interpret sources to identify the purpose and significance of an ancient artefact develop texts, particularly descriptions and explanations to draw conclusions about the inquiry use historical terms and concepts, incorporate relevant sources and acknowledge these sources of information. 	The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: • explain the significance of particular individuals in soc • describe events and developments from the perspect • identify past events and developments which have be • locate, compare and use information from sources to • explain points of view identified in sources • identify the origin and purpose of sources

ed extensive and long lasting political, a provides students with an appreciation of ower.

cient societies?

/ influenced the civilisation that developed

- of Chinese society
- ncient Chinese society
- w they have been perceived by and/or with other societies and the e significance of Qin Shi Huang and points of nterpretations about Qin ShiHuang and the based on historical sources in short answers

- ociety (focus on Qin Shi Huang)
- ctive of different people who lived at the time
- been interpreted in different ways
- o answer questions

se historical terms and concepts and

(17 weeks – Term 3, Week 3 – Term 4, Week 9)
UNIT 1: The Western and Islamic world — Medieval Europe (c.590 – c.1500)	UNIT 2 – The Asian world - China
A study of Medieval Europe provides a tight chronological link from the end of one historical period, ancient history, which was studied in Year 7 to the beginning of another, the Middle Ages. In this depth study, students examine the key features of medieval Europe and the way dominant beliefs and values, such as Christianity, shaped society	Students investigate the nature of Aztec society and the impact examination of how different societies came into contact with ea colonisation and modernisation, a foundation for studying The r established.
Inquiry questions:	Inquiry questions:
 How did societies change from the end of the ancient period to the beginning of the modern age? 	What were the causes and effects of contact between s
• What key beliefs and values emerged and how did they influence societies? In this unit, students:
• explore the way of life in medieval Europe focusing on key social, cultural, economic and political	this unit, students:
features	 examine pre-Columbian life in the Americas, including so
• investigate how an individual's life experience depended on their place in medieval society by	 investigate the reasons behind European exploration and studying the roles and relationships of different groups	 investigate the nature of the contact and conflict between Aztecs and the subsequent effects on both groups of people explore continuity and change in crime and punishment in medieval Europe 	Azieus and the subsequent enects on both groups of per examine the important role of the Catholic Church and its dominance in medieval society investigate significant developments such as the Crusades and individuals such Richard the Lionheart and Saladin.
Unit 1 Assessment	Unit 2 Assessment
Supervised Assessment	Supervised Assessment
Stimulus Response Exam	Short Response Exam
Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of patterns of continuity and change in the systems of crime and punishment from ancient times to the medieval period, and how significant groups were influenced by beliefs and values of society during the time of the Crusades. They analyse	Students will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the of the Americas and the motives and actions of people at the view in sources, different interpretations of the past and development.
	The appearment will gether evidence of the student's shility to:
and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses.	The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to:
and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to:	explain the causes and effects of events and developme
 and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: recognise and explain patterns of change and continuity over time 	 explain the causes and effects of events and developme identify the motives and actions of people at the time
 and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: recognise and explain patterns of change and continuity over time identify the motives and actions of people at the time 	 explain the causes and effects of events and developme identify the motives and actions of people at the time describe different interpretations of the past
 and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: recognise and explain patterns of change and continuity over time identify the motives and actions of people at the time explain the significance of groups and how they were influenced by the beliefs and values of their society 	 explain the causes and effects of events and developme identify the motives and actions of people at the time describe different interpretations of the past
 and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: recognise and explain patterns of change and continuity over time identify the motives and actions of people at the time explain the significance of groups and how they were influenced by the beliefs and values of their society analyse, select and organise information from primary and secondary sources and use as evidence to answer questions 	 explain the causes and effects of events and developme identify the motives and actions of people at the time describe different interpretations of the past sequence events and developments within a chronologic
 and interpret sources and write short answer and paragraph responses. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: recognise and explain patterns of change and continuity over time identify the motives and actions of people at the time explain the significance of groups and how they were influenced by the beliefs and values of their society analyse, select and organise information from primary and secondary sources and use as 	 explain the causes and effects of events and developme identify the motives and actions of people at the time describe different interpretations of the past sequence events and developments within a chronologic of time analyse, select and organise information from primary ar t of the Spanish conquest. Through an each other and the mixed outcomes of making of the modern world in Year 9 is

- societies in this period?
- eriod have influenced the world today? In
- social organisation, values and beliefs
- and expansion
- en the Spanish conquistadors and the people in the short and longer term.

e causes and effects of the Spanish conquest ime; identify and explain different points of op descriptions and explanations.

- : nents
- ogical framework with reference to periods
- and secondary sources and use it as rporate analysis, historical terms and concepts

YEAR 9 HISTORY UNIT OUTLINE

UNIT 1: Australia and Asia — Making a nation (1790–1914)	UNIT 2 – World War I (1914–1918)
Students examine the interactions between European settlers and Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples and the effects of this contact, as well as key developments and ideas in the movement to a democratic Australia.	Students study World War I, students explore the cause, cours focus on the Australian experience. This provides a clear link to 10, and lays the foundation for the study of twentieth century h
Inquiry questions:	Inquiry question:
 What were the changing features of the movements of people from 1750 to 1918? 	What was the significance of World War I?
 What was the origin, development, significance and long-term impact of imperialism in this period? 	In this unit, students: • develop an understanding of nationalism and investigate
In this unit, students:	 thereasons for Australia's involvement compare the experiences of Australian soldiers on the b explore reasons for the expansion of British settlement into Australia 	WesternFront examine the expansion of European settlement and different responses, including conflicts 	 understand how changing technology changed the nature between settlers and Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples	appreciate the role of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island investigate the experiences of non-Europeans (including South Sea Islanders) in Australia prior to 1900 	 identify where Australian forces fought and assess the andcampaigns explore the impact of the war on the home front, partice womenand the conscription debate develop a discussion about the significance and validity identify and classify the main features of Australian society that influenced living and working conditions around 1900 investigate the key events and ideas that led to the development of Australian self- government and democracy, particularly Federation in 1901 	explore how Australians commemorate World War I.
 investigate the ways that living and working conditions were affected by the introduction of social legislation between 1901 and 1914 identify patterns of continuity and change referring to key events and ideas in the development of the Australian patient development of the Australian nation
Unit 1 Assessment	Unit 2 Assessment
Unit 1 Assessment	Unit 2 Assessment Supervised Assessment
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment
·	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918.	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of t
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: • refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of t The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to:
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: • refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change and continuity over time	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of t The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to:
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change and continuity over time explain the motives and actions of people at the time 	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of r The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: • explain the significance of events and developments over • explain different interpretations of the past • interpret, process, analyse and organise information from
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change and continuity over time explain the motives and actions of people at the time examine sources to compare different points of view 	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of the The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: explain the significance of events and developments over explain different interpretations of the past interpret, process, analyse and organise information from sources and use it as evidence to answer an inquiry question
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change and continuity over time explain the motives and actions of people at the time examine sources to compare different points of view evaluate sources to analyse origin and purpose, and draw conclusions about their usefulness 	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of the The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: explain the significance of events and developments over explain different interpretations of the past interpret, process, analyse and organise information from sources and use it as evidence to answer an inquiry quest examine sources to compare different points of view
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change and continuity over time explain the motives and actions of people at the time examine sources to compare different points of view 	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a r incorporating historical interpretation about the significance of the The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: explain the significance of events and developments over explain different interpretations of the past interpret, process, analyse and organise information from sources and use it as evidence to answer an inquiry quest examine sources to compare different points of view develop own interpretation of the past
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment Short Response Students will explain patterns of change and continuity and the motives and actions of people, during the development of the Australian nation between 1750 and 1918. The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: refer to key events and the actions of individuals and groups to explain patterns of change and continuity over time explain the motives and actions of people at the time examine sources to compare different points of view evaluate sources to analyse origin and purpose, and draw conclusions about their usefulness sequence events and developments within a chronological framework, and refer to periods of	Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay Students will analyse, select and organise information from a raincorporating historical interpretation about the significance of the student's ability to: The assessment will gather evidence of the student's ability to: explain the significance of events and developments over explain different interpretations of the past interpret, process, analyse and organise information from sources and use it as evidence to answer an inquiry quest examine sources to compare different points of view urse and effect of the war with a particular to World War II, the first depth study of Year history.

ate the political causes of the war and battlefields of Gallipoli and on the ture of warfare during World War I Inder soldiers in World War I significance of selected battles ularly in terms of the changing role of y of the Anzac legend

a range of sources to develop a discussion, f the Anzac Legend andAnzac Day.

0:

ver the short and long term om a range of primary and secondary estion storical interpretations

s and concepts es.

UNIT 1: World War II (1939–45)	UNIT 2 – Rights and freedoms (1945 – present)
Inquiry question:	Inquiry question:
 How did the nature of global conflict change during the twentieth century? What were the consequences of World War II? How did these consequences shape the modern world? In this unit, students: explore the inter-war years between World War I and World War II, including the Treaty of Versailles, the Roaring Twenties and the Great Depression use evidence to explore the course of events during World War II use a range of primary and secondary sources to explore the Australian experience during World War II, including home front experiences, international relationships, the fall of Singapore, POWs, Indigenous involvement and the significance of the Kokoda campaign use sources to explore significant events such as the Holocaust and the use of the atomic bomb during World War II review the legacy of World War II with a particular focus on Australia's significant role in United Nations peacekeeping. 	 How was Australian society affected by other significant global In this unit, students: explore the origin and significance of human rights as we Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples for investigate the causes, effects and significance of the Store investigate continuity and change in the civil rights for Aboreoples over time investigate methods used by civil rights activists to achieve Torres Strait Islander peoples examine the significance of the United Nations Declaration Aboreoples and Torres Strait Islander peoples.
Unit 1 Assessment Supervised Assessment	Unit 2 Assessment Supervised Assessment
Supervised Assessment	Stimulus Response Essay
Short Response	Climate Roopense Leedy

al events and changes in this period?
well as the background to the struggle of or rights and freedoms before 1965
Stolen Generations
Aboriginal peoples and Torres Strait Islander ieve change for Aboriginal peoples and ation of the Rights of Indigenous Peoples to a range of sources to develop a historical Jh Court decision. to:
om a range of perspectives os, and beliefs and values to explain nge of primary and secondary sourcesand alues and attitudes t sources and reference these sources.

Balance and coverage of general capabilities and cross-curriculum priorities across 7–10 Key Numeracy Literacy ICT capability Critical and creative +-×÷ •• ¢. thinking Aboriginal and Torres Strait Asia and Australia's Personal and social Intercultural understanding C₃ Islander histories and engagement with Asia capability cultures • ≁ Unit 1 (T3 – Weeks Term 2 Term 1 +-×÷ C. C₃ . к х х х х х х 7 Х х х 8 Х х х х х х х Х х х х 9 х х х х х х х х х х 10 х х х х х х х х

Ethical understanding

Sustainability

Unit 2
1 ::-	E	(;			ං	No.	٨٨
x		х	х	х	х	х	х	х
х		х	х	х	х		х	х
х	х	х	х	х	х	х	х	х
х	х	х	х	х	х	х	х	х

¥ The assessment provides an opportunity for planned consistency of teacher judgments activities

n 4
33	34	35	36	37	38	39	40
						¥
						¥
						¥
	¥
	33						Image: second

Whole school assessment plan: 7–10 overview

YEAR 7 HISTORY ASSESSMENT
UNIT 1: Investigating the Ancient Past	UNIT 2 – The Asian world - China
Research Investigation	Supervised Assessment
In-Class Research Task	Stimulus Response Exam
Length: 400 words + bibliography (containing at least four (4) sources).	Length: 60 minutes.(undertaken in one uninterrupted sess
YEAR 8 HISTORY ASSESSMENT
UNIT 1: The Western and Islamic world — Medieval Europe (c.590 – c.1500)	Unit 3: Expanding contacts — The Spanish Conquest
Supervised Assessment	Supervised Assessment
Stimulus Response Exam	Stimulus Response Exam
Length: 70 minutes.(undertaken in one uninterrupted session)	Length: 70 minutes.(undertaken in one uninterrupted sess
YEAR 9 HISTORY ASSESSMENT
UNIT 1: Australia and Asia — Making a nation (1790–1914)	UNIT 2 – World War I (1914–1918)
Supervised Assessment	Supervised Assessment
Stimulus Response Exam	Stimulus Response Essay
Length: 60 minutes.(undertaken in one uninterrupted session)	Length: 2 x 70 minutes
YEAR 10 HISTORY ASSESSMENT
UNIT 1: World War II (1939–45)	UNIT 2 – Rights and freedoms (1945 – present)
UNIT 1: World War II (1939–45) Supervised Assessment
	UNIT 2 – Rights and freedoms (1945 – present) Supervised Assessment Stimulus Response Essay

